VOLUME XXVII

FOREWORD

The past school year has been one of both frolic and toil for Uni High. The class of 1949 has undertaken the happy task of recording the events of this period for a posterity we hope is appreciative. We felt the delightful operettas of Gilbert and Sullivan would be an apt theme since these two gentlemen are not strangers to the students of Uni High. If you wish to renew your acquaintance with the handsome gondoliers, frightful Katishaw, and the dainty, little fairies, you have only to turn the page.

Dedication

We, the Seniors of 1949, in sincere appreciation of the guidance and encouragement she has given us throughout our high school career, gratefully dedicate this yearbook to Miss Colleen Kirk, whose wonderful spirit has endeared her to us all.

CLASS WILL

We, the illustrious Seniors of 1949, being of seemingly sound mind do hereby bequeath these, a few of our renowned characteristics, to you, our successors, in the hope that they will mean as much to you as they have to us. (No comments, please.)

I, Don Baldwin, leave my ability to stay out of trouble to Joe Casserly.

I, Virginia Banks, leave my athletic ability to future varsity teams.

I Betty Beach, leave my extra-curricular activities to Becky Ayars.

I, Bob Buley, leave my initials to the Daisy Air Rifle Company.

I, Ann Buttitta, leave my calm, relaxed ways to Caroline Stoddard.

I, Barbara Clark, leave my half finished argyles to anyone who would like a pair of half finished argyles.

I, Doug Chalmers, leave Rocky Ryan to Harry Cattell.

I, Barbara Cohen, leave for Michigan. May the best man win.

I, Ann Cornell, leave the key to the lounge in the office.

I, Mary Crackel, leave. Recreation at last.

I, Bill Davis, leave my height to the Rabinowitchs--3 ft. for each. I need the rest.

I, Sally Davison, leave my ability to walk under obstacles to Sheila Flanagan.

We, Dave and Don Dietemann, leave our Nash to the highest bidder.

I, Helen Dively, leave my sunny personality to Joe Stalin.

I, Jim Delaney, leave in a Piper Cub.

I, Ginger Erickson, leave my name in the spice cabinet.

I, Lois Ferdina, leave my hair to Pat Campbell for a two-tone experiment.

I, Bruce Friewald, reluctantly leave Los Angeles in California

I, Bill Goodheart, leave my Buicks to Charles Rockwood.

I, Virginia Grant, leave my absence slips to the Girl Scouts.

I, Lois Hershbarger, leave my quiet, reserved ways to Lorinda Freeman.

I, Herb Herzel, leave my linguistic ability in Miss Changnon's memory. Only she knew what I said.

I, Lenny Howard, leave with half the male population of Uni High following.

I, Bill Jareo, leave my shy, retiring manner to my brother.

I, Herb Keener, leave Uni High duller.

I, Larry Kettelkamp, leave my low B to Margo Jackson.

I, Mary Jean Kudo, leave my quiet sophistication to Katie Cummins.

I, Melvin Le Baugh, leave my mechanical ability to the Physical Plant.

I, Mimi Loomis, leave Student Council quiet once more.

I, Tommy Lowry, leave Tom. There's no doubt this time.

I, Zimmer Luttrell, leave my outspoken classroom behavior to Gayle Meyers.

I, Cree McPherson, leave my grace to Bob Causey.

I, Russ Miles, leave my sandy ringlets to Molly Flanagan.

I, Pete Pelafos, leave my brother. Isn't that enough?

I, Richard Potthoff, leave my reckless driving to Ronnie Maginn.

I, Annette Rodebush, leave my love of Math to Noel Hurd.

I, Bert Rosecrans, leave the minutes neatly stacked on the office desk.

We, Margie and Frank, Samuels, leave to start a peppermint farm.

I, Bob Stafford, leave my way with women to Tom Rogers although I'm not sure he needs it.

I, Art Stoddard, leave the school in the hands of the underclassmen. How will it ever survive?

I, Bob Sullivan, leave head over heels.

I, Mary Ruth Tate, leave my efforts to boost G.A.A. to Tom Lambert.

I, Diamando Tomaras, leave on two wheels.

I, Terry Truitt, leave my ability to get along with teachers to John Pritchett.

I, Mary Wesley, leave my Longview friends to next year's football team.

CLASS PROPHECY

"Surely I hear voices."

Don (the shuffling spectre) Baldwin is a mechanical engineer. Says Don, "I get all wound up before each run."

Virginia Banks made her debut recently refereeing the Chicago Cardinals and the Green Bay Packers.

Betty (J stands for Jones) Beach, after only three years of college, has taken her bachelor.

Bob Buley, famed dermatologist, is now skinning hogs at Swift & Company.

Ann Buttitta is putting into practice the Home Ec skills she so diligently learned at Uni High.

Doug "foom, foom" Chalmers has just introduced chemical warfare in football.

Barbara Clark is studying under King Gustav for her doctor's degree in embroidery.

Barbara Cohen is house mother for Sigma Alpha Mu.

Ann Cornell is the art editor for Dental Hygiene. (She says she's her own model.)

Mary Crackel is 2nd vice president of Kellogg in charge of pops and snaps.

Bill "All I've got to do is put in the motor" Davis is now a substitute WILL radio tower, red beacon and all.

Sally "How now, brown cow" Davison is trying to persuade Olivier to put Rosencrantz and Gildenstern back into Hamlet.

Don "She's under the mistletoe, Dave. Grab her." Dietemann is making ink blots for Kankakee.

Dave "Got her, Don. Next." Dietemann has just finished an abstract, "Life in a Pallette Knife Factory." The painting might have been famous, but he lost it.

Helen Dively is health inspector at Santa Anita.

Jim Delaney is making cupcakes for the flying saucers.

Virginia Erickson, star of the Nabisco show, is now making wafers over television.

Lois Ferdina is head nurse at the Stork Club.

Frank "Think it'll rain" Finch, ambassador, when asked if we were going to war with lower Siberia, replied, "I would not want Tibet."

Bruce Friewald is keeping fit with his 60 second Vitalis work out.

Bill Goodheart is in the hospital with a bad heart.

Virginia Grant is writing the new women's page for Esquire.

Lois "You should see it when it's not braided" Hershbarger is now close to the soil. She's a mortician.

Herbert Herzel is on a slow boat to China reviewing movies for Pravda.

Lenny Howard is fashion illustrator for Science Illustrated.

Bill "Anything a squirrel can do to a tree" Jareo is a roving Servi-Cycle reporter for the Hobo News.

Herb "If I had the wings of an angel I'd be at La Guardia by morning" Keener is working at the Conover Model Agency in charge of model planes.

Larry "Ich been so so" Kettelkamp is a casein painter; he paints cases for the American Container Corporation.

Melvin Le Baugh, while plowing one day, accidentally dug a 40 ft. coal shaft.

Mimi Loomis has succeeded Gilda Gluskoter as Dean of Men at Harvard.

Tommy Lowry is medical assistant in charge of hypos at Eastman Kodak.

Zimmer "Shut up, Herb." Luttrell has the first French drive-in in Lexington. All her brothers and sisters are helping too, dressed in smocks and sabots.

Cree McPherson has organized her own Soda Cracker Group in competition with Martha Graham.

Russel Miles has just been admitted to the bar---to watch the television.

Pete Pelafos is now putting pink candy azaleas on wedding cakes.

Richard Potthoff is the first male President of the D.A.R.

Annette Rodebush is teaching piano by ear to deaf people.

Roberta Rosecrans has organized a Brownie patrol among the adolescent Amazons.

Margie Samuel is now married.

Bob Stafford has just completed his largest medical achievement. It was a 40 pound Palomino.

Art Stoddard, eminent psychiatrist, has just begun to take outside patients. Up to now he has been psychoanalyzing his own family. Says Art, "I'm-a-no-gonna say."

Bob Sullivan is now coach at Mount Holyoke.

Mary Ruth "You'll have to make an appointment" Tate has instituted self government at Kankakee.

Diamando Tomaras, after having stabbed a tenor while singing Carmen at the Met, is the new singing pretzel girl at Schreimer's Beer Garden.

Terry "Want to see me imitate a zoo?" Truitt is writing the spelling tests for the college board exams.

Popeye Warmoth is paying his debt to society. He now has an ambulance service for battered up football players.

Mary Wesley's horses are eating up all the profits from her grain elevators.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1949

Five years have passed since the now venerable class of '49 timidly entered University High School as lowly Sub-Freshmen. During that beweildering period, we were ably guided by Mrs. Gribanovsky and our class officers: Larry Kettlekamp, Brice Harris, Thomas Cole, Mary Ruth Tate, and James Ayars.

As Freshmen the next fall, we began to enter into the spirit of Uni High. We were fortunate in having as officers Diamando Tomaras, Frank Finch, Barbara Cohen, Terry Truitt, Jane Graham, and Brice Harris. Miss Irene Babicz and Mr. Robert Allen served as our advisers.

Climbing to the rank of Sophomores, we contributed our talents to nearly all of the school activities. We sponsored the tranditional "Spring Fling" and presented a radio discussion over WILL. Bob Stafford, Carol Fulrath, Sally Davison, Herbert Keener, Terry Truitt, and Hamilton Smith were our leaders throughout this busy year. Mrs. Kraus and Mr. Frasure were a steadying and helpful influence.

We entered the realms of the upperclassmen as "jaunty Juniors." We elected Art Stoddard, Thomasina Lowry, Barbara Cohen, Mary Ruth Tate, Margie Samuel, and Frank Finch as our class officers. Miss Changnon and Mr. Zupsich advised us in our activities, among which the Christmas Dance and the Junior-Senior Prom were prominent.

At last the class of '49 soared blithely to the position of leadership in Uni High - we became seniors. Our capable officers are Frank Finch, Mary Ruth Tate, Thomasina Lowry, Douglas Chalmers, Mimi Loomis, and Art Stoddard. They, with the assistance of Miss Changnon and Mr. Hanson, have initiated and carried through various worthwhile ventures. We enjoyed the annual Skip Day to the proverbial hilt. This U and I is the culmination and record of the happy, active career of the class of '49 at Uni High. As we look hopefully toward new horizons, we leave Uni High not without regret.

JUNIOR CLASS

"From today you rank as a full-flown member of our band."

Secretary	Jo Ann Wingard
Treasurer	Harry Cattell
Girls' Representative	Virginia Bennett
Boys' Representative	Chuck Ross

Although Mr. Stafford, junior boys' advisor, admitted his belief that the junior boys make all the noise and the girls do all the work, we cannot think this to be entirely true. It is hardly possible that the junior girls and their advisor, Miss Kirk, could have done alone the work necessary to put on the fine school parties they have given. On December 18, at the Union Building, the school Christmas party took place due to the efforts of the juniors. They initiated the Homecoming theme for the Christmas dance, and sent invitations to all alumni. Famous for their last-minute basketball hops, they put on two very successful ones, the Valentine Hop and the George Washington Hop. They plan a class picnic and an assembly in the spring, and are making all the plans for the highlight of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom.

SOPHOMORE CLASS

"Poor wandering ones"

President	Lucy Goodell
Vice President	Bob Jones
Secretary	Judy Hoggatt
Treasurer	Tom Rogers
Girls' Representative	Anne Carter
Boys' Representative	John Clark

The sophomores began their class "socializing" in the fall with a masquerade party in the attic. Here they competed for the best costumes, with prizes for the most spectacular ones. Later they gave a basketball hop for the school, at which time the gym was transformed, more or less, into an old-fashioned bar with card tables, a floor show, and refreshments, please note, of coke and ice cream. Another sophomore class party took place on March 4, in the attic, with games, dancing, and a floor show. The girls, with Miss Gill as advisor, sometimes have discussion groups in advisory period. Mr. Bradshaw is the boys' advisor. Together the sophomores will give the school May dance and also plan to celebrate by a class picnic on the afternoon that final exams are completed.

FRESHMAN CLASS

"Perhaps you suppose this throng can't keep it up all day long"

President	Miriam Lamar
Vice President	John Finch
Secretary	Becky Ayars
Treasurer	Chuck Medrow
Girls' Representative	Margot France
Boys' Representative	Jim Hayes

The freshmen are quite a busy and active group and seem to enjoy having many of their own parties. They do not lack ideas for them, either. In November they had a class party at school with games, dancing, floor show, and refreshments. On the night of the Minnesota basketball game they had a "listening" party, when they listened to the game on the radio, and afterwards, danced in the attic. Of course, they could not omit a Valentine's party, and later they had a Hay-seed party at which all were to appear in hill-billy costume. The freshman publication, the "Fifty-two Pick-up" was of interest to the whole school and helped to acquaint the rest of us with the freshman class. They plan to give the school April Fool party and a class picnic in May. Mrs. Cantrall and Mrs. Lindsey are the freshman advisors and assist them in their industrious efforts.

SUB-FRESHMAN CLASS

"With loving and laughing and quipping and quaffing we're happy as happy can be."

President	Peter Stearns
Vice President	Dick Pogue
Secretary	Judy Cleary
Treasurer	Anne Colwell
Student Council Representative	Karlyn Kettelkamp
Scrapbook Editor	Nancy Working

Though our sub-freshmen are the smallest, they can certainly equal or surpass the rest of Uni High in lively participation in many varied activities. Their contribution to the annual Carnival was a movie show, and they have been busy making up plays and constructing their own puppets for a parents' show or, perhaps, an assembly. A fun-loving group also, they have had several parties of their own. Among these are a Hallowe'en party, a scavenger hunt at school with refreshments made by the girls, and their first dancing party in the attic on February 11. An interest in sports is not lacking in this class either, and the sub-freshman basketball team has played the freshmen at Champaign Junior High and Willard School, ably supported by their own cheer-leaders. They have spent a day visiting the University Library, and plans have been made for a trip to New Salem or the Museum of Science and Industry in Chicago. We cannot blame Mrs. Gribanovsky, the sub-freshman advisor, for finding it difficult to keep up with such activity.

The City Jungle

Like a man made jungle
The big city lies,
A tentacled octopus
With flash-green eyes.

Like chiefs of the jungle
The skyscrapers frown
Over long rows of houses
In monotonous brown.

Sirens are howling
A factory horn screams
Airplanes droning overhead
This--no place for dreams.

Bustling people, buzzing voices
Filling serpent-trains with din
Clutching after fads and fashions
These, the strangest animals in
The City Jungle.

STUDENT COUNCIL

"For everyone who feels inclined some post we undertake to find."

President	Art Stoddard
Vice President	Eleanor Stoddard
Secretary	Mimi Loomis
Treasurer	Mary Ruth Tate
Advisor	Mr. John Hanson

Perhaps the first and most effective result of Student Council planning to come about this year is the lounge, which has been enjoyed by many Uni High students. Through last spring and summer, much effort was put forth on the lounge, and during this year a committee set up by Student Council has been busy taking care of it. In September, the Student Council helped to start off the year properly with the Get Acquainted Party, and in October, the Uni High Carnival. The Finance and Publicity committees have been operating throughout the year, and the Safety committee has been working on the problem of making safer conditions in and around the school. Another accomplishment that is appreciated by the students is the Honor System. Twelve representatives from the school were sent to the Illinois Association of Student Councils Convention in March, and two of our members are officers of the district. The Student Council has cooperated throughout the year with the Tri High Council.

G.A.A. COUNCIL

"Comes a train of little ladies."

The Girls' Athletic Association conducted many out-of-school activities including the Star Dance and the Mother-Daughter Tea. The girls also enjoyed all the intramural sports and activities which were sponsored by G.A.A. Mary Ruth Tate served ably as president of G.A.A. during the year.

Top Row: Margie Samuel, Sandra Smith, Tommy Lowry, Mary Ruth Tate, Virginia Banks.

JUST US

"Here's a howdy-do."

The business of putting out the Just Us, our school newspaper, has been done by several hard working staff members, and many other contributors to it. Several interesting ideas in the Just Us this year were character sketches and drawings of the faculty, an interview by five students with Norman Thomas, a cover girl--our Tri-High Queen, and interviews with Champaign students about their opinions of our art exhibition work. Long before the new evaluation system was announced to parents, the Just Us had explained it. Often readers have overlooked how new such news as this is, and have failed to appreciate how much effort has gone into the making of an issue. During the first eight issues of Just Us, thirty-seven different people took part in the work, and were given help in creative writing. Some of those who have written more than once for the Just Us are: Molly Flanagan, Betsy Yeatter, Gary Brown, Miriam Lamar, Cynthia Almy, Becky Ayars, Donna Samuel, Diana Hewitt, Shirley Marco, Peter Stearns, Margit Wallace, and Tod Oliver.

Middle Row: Diana Hewitt, Molly Flanagan, Lucy Goodell, Marie Garvey, Moyra Blodgett, Shirley Marco, Becky Ayars, Gary Brown.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

"Everything is interesting; tell us, tell us all about it."

Under the supervision of Mr. Bradshaw, the photography club has grown into an active and interesting organization. Meetings are held informally on Wednesday afternoons. At the beginning of the year, the dark room was completed with help from the group. Much fine equipment has been purchased for the club's use - an enlarger, printer, camera, and lighting and developing equipment. Members have had instruction and discussions on methods of printing, enlarging, developing, and in the composition of a good photograph. The club has given good opportunity for those interested in cameras to practice and learn more about photography.

"There are lots of good fish in the sea."

During the first semester, under the leadership of Doris Neyendorf, Terrapin devoted much time to swimming skills and planning for the annual water ballet. Dorothy Swanson directed the activities of the group during the second semester. On April 7 and 8, the ballet was given for the public. Margie Samuel served as president for the year.

ORCHESIS

"Tripping hither, tripping thither."

Under the leadership of Mrs. Meriam Rosen, Orchesis has accomplished much in dance technique, rhythm, and dance composition. During the year, Orchesis boasted a membership of twenty-seven, and Barbara Cohen served as president. To climax the year's hard work, Orchesis presented their annual concert in Gregory Hall on May 27. This proved to be a huge success. Orchesis also had a large part in the P.T.A. Christmas program.

Standing: Terry Truitt, Ann Cornell, Margie Samuel, Betty Scott, Joyce Hamburg, Charlotte Millbrook, Mary Emly, Ginna Bennett, Sandra Smith, Lucy Goodell, Bert Rosecrans, Ginger Erickson, Diamonda Tomaras.

GIRLS' CHORUS

"With soft serenading we sing them to sleep."

Forty-eight members of the Girls' Chorus have met during the second period on Wednesdays and Fridays. This chorus presented a group of numbers on the annual Christmas program. Members of the organization participated in the all-state high school chorus, in "The Pirates of Penzance", and in the Champaign County Music Festival. Helen Lambrakis was the accompanist for the Girls' Chorus. The officers for this year are: Ann Buckley, President; Jane Roos, Vice-President; Virginia Bennett, Secretary; and Jane Eliot, Treasurer.

MIXED CHORUS

"Every sound becomes a song."

The Mixed Chorus is composed of seventy members who meet on Mondays and Tuesdays during the second period. The entire chorus participated in the annual Christmas program and in the Commencement program. Representatives of the group sang in the all-state high school chorus and in the Champaign County Music Festival. In conjunction with the Girls' Chorus, the Mixed Chorus presented the Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance". Accompanists for the chorus were Lois Ferdina and Lenny Howard. Officers for the Mixed Chorus were: Larry Kettelkamp, President; Margie Samuel, Vice-President; Lucretia McPherson, Secretary; and Harry Cattell, Treasurer.

ORCHESTRA

"There's beauty in the bellow of the blast."

Every second period, on Wednesday and Friday, the "bellow of the blast" can be heard from certain strategic parts of the building. And often there is beauty in it too, though the orchestra members have good naturedly taken much teasing about this matter. On Thursday noons the string instruments put in a little extra practice. The orchestra as a whole played in the Christmas program and will perhaps give a performance in an assembly or a program at Gregory Hall. Mr. Warren Schuetz is the director. The orchestra and Mr. Schuetz work hard together, but they enjoy it, too.

MADRIGALS

"Sing a merry madrigal."

Patterning themselves after the old group singers, one of the most successful of our musical groups is Madrigals. Its ten members have met to practice at noon twice weekly. Usually they draw several student teachers to the observation room. The performance of the group reflects the superior training it has had, and it has become quite popular, performing for numerous organizations in town such as the University Women's Club and the alumni of Sigma Alpha Iota. The Madrigals have also sung for Tolono High School and for the Servicemens' Y in Rantoul. Costumes typical of 17th century nobility add much color to the group. Larry Kettelkamp conducts the performances.

Standing: Larry Kettelkamp, Jim Bray, Bill Jareo, Frank Finch.
Seated: Margo Jackson, Sally Davison, Mary Ruth Tate, Betty Scott, Eleanor Stoddard, Margie Samuel.

"Nobody's safe, for we care for none!"

University High School started the athletic year with a football schedule of eight games. Our new coach, Dale Lacky, had five lettermen to start the season. Coach Lacky was hampered the entire season by a series of injuries that eventually hit all of his first six men. Things started out wrong when co-captain Art Stoddard was injured before a single game was played. However, our other fine co-captain, Leland Warmoth, did an excellent job of carrying the load throughout the season. The Buckeyes were endowed with three wins, but bowed five times to opponents.

As far as scoring goes, Uni High totaled 179 points on the grid in comparison to the opponents' 263. Denny Tucker led in this department with 44 points. Maginn and Brown tied for second place with 24 points each. Stafford followed with 19 points.

THE SEASON

To start the season the Orange and Blue won a wide open game with Humbolt. Halfback Denny Tucker was instrumental in the victory, scoring three thouchdowns and two extra points. The Bucks gained a total of three hundred and seventy eight yards in comparison to the Tigers' one hundred seventy seven.

University High entertained Longview in its first home game of the season. The game was nip and tuck all the way, with Longview scoring the points in the waning seconds of the game. Tucker scored both of the Buckeye's touchdowns.

Tolono increased its victory streak to thirty three by winning a rough and tumble game that saw the Bucks behind only in the score. Popeye's passing and Doug's brilliant running highlighted the game for Uni High.

Uni High lost more than a game when they journeyed to Longview. The Bucks were badly injured for the rest of the season when both Tom Lambert and Popeye Warmoth were taken to the hospital midway in the game.

Gary Brown scored Uni High's only touchdown in a poorly played game against Mahomet. Popeye again was forced to leave the game because of the recurrence of former injuries.

The Orange and Blue defeated a strong Mansfield squad in a completely airminded game. Stafford, Davis, Chalmers, and Lambert all scored at least once via air mail and the Bucks seemed to regain a semblance of their former strength. Lambert and Stafford were outstanding in their great defensive work, stopping many attempts that could have resulted in long runs.

The Orange and Blue lost to a hard driving Fisher team that couldn't stop rolling. Uni High was hampered by the fact that Popeye could play only offensively. Harry Cattell had just returned after recovering from an injury sustained early in the season and could see only limited action.

University High wound up its football season with a victory over a surprisingly strong St. Joseph team. The field was wet and rain fell during much of the game. Uni High tied the score at the end of the first with a touchdown run by Warmoth. Trailing 19-18 with little time left in the game, Gary Brown, who had just scored previously, took the ball and ran the length of the field to score the winning touchdown.

University High	47	34	Humboldt

THE BUCKEYE LETTERMEN

Captain Bob Stafford, Forward - Bob's 6'3'' height, lots of jump, a cool head, and a sharp shooting eye gave Uni High a good many points and stopped just as many opponents' shots. He lettered last year, and was voted the most valuable player this year.

Guard Denny Tucker - Denny was our only other returning letterman. His fast floor play and good defensive work were invaluable to the Bucks.

Center Frank Finch - Tall Frank's steady pivot work, rebounding, and accurate pivot shot were always the source of points for the Orange and Blue.

Forward Russ Miles - Sharp from the corner, up for a rebound, leading a fast break, that's senior Russ Miles. With his height and speed he helped out at center when the going got rough.

Guard Harry Cattell - A dangerous man from 'way out with a long shot and extremely fast on drive-ins - these abilities made Harry a good ball-player. He was elected captain for next year.

Guard Bill Goodheart - Bill's the player that could get out and play steady basketball or break loose with a tremendous burst of speed and drive for those needed points.

Forward Kendall Fahnestock - Kendall had an eye for the basket and improved tremendously during the season. He will be a prominent figure on the next year's team.

CALENDAR

September

9. G.A.A. picnic. Welcome to Uni High, little sisters. We really learned that new school song, didn't we?

10. Or did we? Humboldt game, you know. Well, we won anyway.

11. Golly! An English theme on the first day of school. Aren't teachers human.

18. Quite some Get Acquainted Party! How many clothespins can you drop in a bottle?

24. The yearbook staff was chosen today. Imagine! Me!

29. Congratulations to Margie and Frank on their first anniversary. (They've been going together a year now.)

30. The canine pencil holder in the library has changed from a calico pup to silver pooch with black spots. That's a dog of another color.

October

4. All those people in 205! It's just tryouts for Quality Street. First time I knew Ginna had a Cockney accent.

6. Quality Street cast announced! Congratulations, kids! 5' Sally and 6'2'' Jim Branch ought to make a cute couple.

8. Happy day! No school thanks to the Illinois Teachers' Meeting.

11. The excited girls crowd the attic at Orchesis tryouts.

12. Was it worth it? Oh, my aching back!

13. Minus a class a day this week for carnival planning! This makes school into play.

16. The carnival was really fun. Too bad the fish pond ran out of prizes. That was some talent they found for the big show--a lot of it new, too.

18. The lucky few who were chosen for Orchesis were formally initiated at Mrs. Rosen's home. Fun!

19. Just call us guinea pigs! Finger prints in chorus! Does your teacher upset you?

26. We're hearing rumors about the Hallowe'en party.

28. Signs now. I think the ghost with the finger-nail polish, lipstick, and hair ribbon is the cutest. What is this Walking Ghost?

29. Now we see this Walking Ghost at the pep assembly. Nice assembly, but who was it?

30. Hallowe'en party. Dramatic entrance, n'est-ce pas? I hope the chaperons got home safely on their brooms. I can't help wondering how Harryette carted all her prizes home. Golly, Don Baldwin had a lot of people fooled!

November

5. That was a nice P.T.A. program. The folk dancing was fun, and some talented actors and actresses were discovered. I even liked Doug's "wooden duck".

6. Lovely Tri High dance. Queen Cree was a credit to the school.

11. Red Cross boxes in. Two minutes of silence facing the East. It is the one quiet, thought-ful time during the day.

12. Love these teachers who consider our activities before giving or not giving homework! Thanks! Dress rehearsal for Quality Street. Jim was really tattered when he returned from the wars - in stocking feet.

13. Ah, boots for the Captain! The play went well - so I'm told.

19. I must mention the successful Senior hop after the not so successful Mahomet game. It was our first basketball game of the season.

24. Noon - Thanksgiving vacation. I won't be a kill-joy and say, "Don't eat too much." My advice is, "Have fun, and eat a lot."

30. "I am a pirate king." No, not me. That's just tryouts for the operetta, The Pirates of Penzance.

December

4. So many people at the Sophomore hop! Too bad the Sidney game ended that way.

8. The new G.A.A. members received their instructions for initiation. Ooo!

10. Golly, that Longview game was close - and rough!

11. It's just Orchesis practicing for the Christmas program. Don't be alarmed at the odd noises.

13. Lucky chorus, getting to watch Cree's dance. Isn't she good!

15. Dress rehearsal for the Christmas program. "Let's start again. Together now!"

16. Christmas program. It went well, chorus, orchestra, monks, juggler, and all.

17. It's the best party the teachers have ever given us! Good refreshments, too! To top it off, we won our first basketball game - Philo.

18. It was a wonderful Christmas dance! Funny how it kept getting dark for a while.

21. It seems that Tom Lambert believes in the tradition of mistletoe.

23. Hark, the herald angels sing.

24. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

January

3. Yawn! Just when I was getting used to vacation and stopped waking up at 6:45 every morning! I must admit it's nice to see everybody again.

15. Lucky cast of the operetta! Miss Kirk took them to Chicago where they saw The Pirates of Penzance at the Civic Opera House. Thank goodness our Sargeant can sing.

17. The tournament started very well with Uni High beating Philo 34-33 in an overtime. Yea, team!

19. Out team played a wonderful game! It was close. Too bad Ogden won 35-31.

31. Who says cramming won't help? I just learned the definitions of participles at one A.M.

February

1-3. Ugh! Those exams! Oh, well, I think I'll have enough credits without Chemistry.

12. Nice Valentine hop! The boy next to me matched his number with a cute, little curly headed blonde - Glenn Blair.

14. Happy Valentine's Day. If you look hard, I'll bet you'll find more than one girl wearing her heart on her sleeve.

19. Those energetic Juniors! Another good hop! Harry cannot tell a lie; he chopped down the cherry tree.

23. Yawn. Who says "Nobody Sleeps"? That was quite an assembly! As Chuck Rockwood said, "Aw, those people must be screwy!"

26. Oh, that wonderful Star Dance! My hair was full of sparkly stuff from the "falling stars". One good thing was that there were plenty of cupcakes.

March

7. Did you see Miss Kirk's pretty new saddles?

8. I can see they won't last long now that we've started practicing at Greg Hall.

12. Umm, that lovely full moon!

17. Sure'n the whole school's wearin' the green for St. Patrick's Day.

19. We love the Pirates (the operetta, that is) so much that we even practice on Saturday morning.

23. Dress rehearsal already! Umm! Those handsome pirates! Who wants to struggle?

25-26. It was a lot of fun while it lasted. It is with relief and regret that we leave The Pirates of Penzance. What are these tales we hear about the Student Council Convention? Tell us, tell us all about it.

April

1. April fool!

7. Our mermaids are at it again with their annual Terrapin show. These talented people!

14. Have a nice Easter vacation. Whee, no school until Monday noon.

18. That rest certainly did a lot of good, didn't it? What rest? Oh, well.

30. Spring Fling. It seems that the girls get prettier every year.

May

7. Now I see it all - the play, that is. Good work, cast!

11. What a beautiful day! Who says there's no such thing as spring fever.

26. Swish, swish, swish! Molten colors on Gregory Hall's stage! Orchesis concert dress rehearsal.

27. Bravo! Even if I do say so myself.

30. Memorial Day recess.

June

3. What goes here? The Sophs seem to have had quite a party.

5. Baccalaureate. The time is drawing near.

7-9. What a super way to spoil our last week at Uni High!

10. Commencement. Farewell, Uni High! We've learned a lot and had many good times. We'll return for a visit, too.
